Vacation period is almost finished, the kittens leave the cattery and start their new live and the French CCFN published in its glossy magazine an extended interview about Titran's.

How it all begun 13 years ago, what my breeding plan looks like and a lot about my meaning and thoughts about various subjects related to our beloved breed the Norwegian Forest Cat. The article is completed by the story of two of my lovely French customers ;-).

All this to tell you that you're always welcome to raise all the questions you might have or to come and visit us, in order to see by yourself how we live together and in harmony with our cats and kittens.
